

Marissa is a native to the Tri-Lakes area and is proud to return to the community where she grew up. She comes to Tri-Lakes Cares as Operations Manager with more than 14 years of experience in education and community development. Marissa graduated from The University of Tulsa with a B.A. in Spanish earned an M.A. in International Development from the Josef Korbel School of International Studies at the University of Denver. She worked as a regional coordinator of community engagement for Denver Public Schools and a digital communications specialist for Lewis-Palmer School District before joining Tri-Lakes Cares. Marissa cares deeply about building and strengthening community-based programs and looks forward to using her experience and educational background to support the important impact that Tri-Lakes Cares has in our community.

In her spare time, Marissa enjoys spending time with family and friends, hiking in the mountains, and traveling. She especially looks forward to one day walking the Camino de Santiago in Spain and visiting Machu Picchu in Peru.
