

Rachael left the beaches of Florida and headed to the Mountains of Colorado in 1989. An avid hiker and naturalist, she is happy to call the Centennial State home. Rachael has a Bachelor of Science degree in Biology from the University of Colorado, Denver. A longtime volunteer for the Marian House in Colorado Springs, she has a strong passion for helping others and feels fortunate to be part of the devoted team at Tri-Lakes Cares. As Case Manager, she believes in forming a partnership with the client to achieve the most effective, positive outcome.

Rachael is a Christian and mother of three daughters and a son. In her free time she enjoys hiking, camping, gardening, and spending time with loved ones.
