

Vic is a Colorado native who moved with his wife Karen to Monument in 2017. Vic and Karen spent 40 years in Durango, Colorado where they attended Fort Lewis College, married, pursued careers and raised two wonderful sons.

Vic spent the majority of his career guiding and assisting others as a Probation Officer with the 6th Judicial District, retiring from the Chief Probation Officer position in 2011. During his nearly 25 years as a judicial employee Vic served on multiple boards and committees advocating for juvenile justice, community protection and the rights of domestic violence/sexual assault survivors. Following his career in Probation, Vic worked for The La Plata Family Center in Durango where he provided support and services to parents working through the struggles of separation, divorce and shared parenting.

Vic and Karen enjoy hiking, biking, camping and the treasured time they spend with their friends, their families and their grandchildren.
