

William "Bill" Carberry has served for the last four years as the Procurement Director for the Air Force Academy Athletic Corporation. He is responsible for planning, organizing, and directing the overall operations for all Air Force Academy Athletic Department Procurements with a total value in excess of 50 Million Dollars per year.

A graduate of Mansfield University of Pennsylvania and the Florida Institute of Technology, Bill began his Army career in 1987 retiring after more than 22 years of service as an Acquisition and Logistics Corps Officer in 2010.

During his Army career Bill had the opportunity to command at every level, from Platoon to Battalion Command. Bill deployed numerous times including Desert Storm earning the Bronze Star, and Operation Restore Hope in Somali earning the Joint Meritorious Service Metal.

Bill has been married for more than 36 years to his wife, Stephanie, and they have two sons, Kyle and Steve, and a daughter Annie. Bill loves hunting, fishing, taking outdoor photographs, and spending time with his family exploring this beautiful State of Colorado.