

Nichole moved from Northern California to Colorado nine years ago for her career. She has an extensive management background, having worked in the field for over fifteen years. She loves people, and has a great passion for helping others. She graduated from Regis University in Denver with a Bachelor's of Science in Business Management. As Volunteer Coordinator, Nichole supports Tri-Lakes Cares by ensuring proper assistance is provided for all TLC programs that involve volunteers, as well as by fostering relationships with our volunteers and clients. She is proud to be a part of Tri-Lakes Cares staff and believes in the value and mission of this organization.

Nichole has been married for eight years, and has two small children and two rescue dogs. She enjoys running, hiking and swimming, and is very active in her community and church. She is a self-proclaimed foodie and loves festivals and events.
