

Julie moved to the Tri-Lakes area from Ankara, Turkey in 2015. She has a special passion for international education and youth programs, refugee support, and most recently serving local families in crisis through Fostering Hope and Safe Families for Children. Julie has her bachelor's degree in Law and Society and a master's degree in Urban and Regional Planning. She is very grateful to be part of the TLC team and their work to serve and dignify the local community.

Julie is originally from San Diego. She is married to Jon, a retired USAF pilot. They have five grown sons, two of which are adopted from Russia. In her free time, Julie loves to invest in women's and USAF cadet ministries, go hiking or biking with friends and family and eat ice cream.
