

Rachael has worked as a Case Manager with Tri-Lakes Cares since December 2018. She understands and respects that each person engaging with Tri-Lakes Cares, does so with their own unique experiences and points of view. She strives to form a partnership with her client to achieve the most effective, positive outcome. Rachael has a Bachelor of Science degree in Biology from the University of Colorado, Denver, and an Associate of Science degree from Front Range Community College.

A longtime volunteer for Catholic Charities' Marian House, she has a strong passion for helping others and feels fortunate to be part of the devoted team at Tri-Lakes Cares. Rachael is a Christian mother of four wonderful children. She loves nature and spends much of her free time in summer hiking. She also enjoys camping, gardening, and spending time with her family. Rachael's motto: "All about Love".
