

Jessica Garrison is originally from Southern California but moved to Monument from a small town in Arkansas in 2015 and is thrilled to finally be in Colorado. As a child, Jessica and her mother also lived in Merida, Yucatan for a couple of years. Jessica's background in the Human Services field previously serving as a Mental Health Case Manager in Arkansas and most recently serving adults in the El Paso County Criminal Justice Center as a Case Manager for inmate pre-sentencing.

Jessica truly loves working with people and helping others. Jessica has a bachelor's degree in Sociology and has completed some coursework at UCCS toward a master's degree in Criminal Justice. Jessica is thrilled to be a part of Tri-Lakes Cares staff and believes in the value and mission of Tri-Lakes Cares.

Jessica is married, has an adult son and two adult stepchildren. Jessica and her husband also sponsor USAFA cadets, have three rescue dogs and five rescue cats.

Jessica is passionate and has been very active in volunteer work with animal rescue and the homeless population for over 20 years. She loves MLB baseball games (watching her Dodgers in particular). She attends every game when her Dodgers play the Rockies at Coors Field and has been a fan since she was 6 years-old listening to the Dodger games with her great-grandmother on her am transistor radio. Jessica also enjoys concerts, eating out, and hiking.
