Our culture, values and what makes us awesome:

We value providing staff with options for a flexible work schedule to promote work-life balance. We are an easy-going and family-friendly group who loves our dog-friendly environment (on days when we are not open for walk-in client services). We want to work with others who have a desire to serve our community, and we welcome and encourage energetic conversations across diverse perspectives and challenge each other respectfully. We take time to get to know each other and support each other to learn and grow. We value a good sense of humor and find fun and joy in our work. We do serious work, but we do not take ourselves too seriously!

We are thoughtful about our privileges and how they affect our interactions with others and we actively listen and are open to feedback and suggestions for improvement. We are not afraid to change course as more information becomes available and we value courageous conversations that may lead to the positive transformation for our organization. We operate in a DFZ (Drama

Free Zone), work as a team, and all play a part in TLC's successes. TLC has a supportive and empowering board of directors and we promote a professional and respectful environment among all team members by providing opportunities to attend trainings and engage in professional development opportunities to increase our knowledge and improve our professional skills.
