

Linda has been a Monument resident for 13 years. Her career history has been in non-profit account as well as human resources and operations. She loves to go camping and hiking. Other interests include reading, crafting, and spending time with her family.