

Mark is a native of Colorado, raised in the small community of Florence, CO. Venturing north, he currently serves as the Assistant Vice President – Business Banking with First National Bank of Monument. With a career in banking that dates back to 2006, he has served in various roles from operations to training, marketing to branch management and currently consumer and commercial lending. Mark believes in making a positive impact in the community by taking part in numerous non-profit activities. He has volunteered countless hours to various organizations over the years and looks forward to applying his experience locally in the Tri-Lakes region.

Mark enjoys the great outdoors that Colorado offers from hiking, to summer outdoor concert events, to camping, and any sport activity.

Having been immersed in the non-profit community in Fremont County for many years, Mark is excited to dive right in with Tri-Lakes Cares to make a difference in the lives of others locally.
