

Ben was born and raised in Denver, and currently works as a Program Associate/Fellow for El Pomar Foundation. Ben graduated from Wesleyan University in 2022 with a Bachelor of Arts in the College of Social Studies. At Wesleyan, Ben served four terms as a senator on the Wesleyan Student Assembly, including two terms as the chair of the Academic Affairs Committee, where he advocated for increased academic resources and new policies to support students in their academic journeys. Prior to attending Wesleyan, Ben was a member of the first graduating class of the Denver School of Science and Technology: Cole, where his leadership within the campus community helped inspire his interest in community service, civic engagement and leadership development. In his free time, Ben enjoys watching hockey, enjoying Colorado's outdoors and spending time with family.
