

Kim & her beloved husband, John moved to Colorado in 6/2000. They love the 300+ days of sunshine & the mild winters Colorado has to offer.

Kim received her Bachelors degree from Bemidji State University (Go Beavers) in Social Work & her Masters degree from The University of St. Thomas (Go Tommies) in Human Resource; specializing in Training & Development & Organizational Development.

Kim had a successful career working in the MPLS Schools as a D&A counselor for 14 years. Upon moving to CO, she worked as a Independent Financial Rep for four years & as a Special Investigator for 16 years, working on Federal Contracts. Kim is currently working in sales & she loves it.

Kim is involved with several other non-profit organizations; Tri-Lakes Dynamic Rotary & Epsilon Sigma Alpha.

Kim has been involved with Tri-Lakes Cares by organizing friends to save egg cartons, paper bags & toiletries for many years. Kim is looking forward to using her critical thinking skills & her social work heart to serve the Tri-Lakes Board & surrounding communities.
