

Shelly grew up in upstate New York, where she met her husband Ric at Community College. She moved to Colorado after community college and graduated from Colorado State University with a degree in Computer Information Systems. She then worked at IBM where she earned her Master's degree in Technology Management from the University of Denver. She continued to work in the IT industry throughout her career in various program management and people management positions.

Shelly has lived in Monument with her husband Ric and her 2 boys, Nic and Jake, since 2005. She has been a volunteer at Tri-Lakes Cares since October of 2021. She also enjoys volunteering for Special Olympics Colorado and spending time in the mountains and outdoors. She works part time in the winter at Breckenridge ski resort and enjoys time there with her family and friends.

Shelly is looking forward to serving the Tri-Lakes community and is passionate about the Tri-Lakes Cares organization and their clients.
